The WIRELESS MAN

Song

Words by Louis Berk

Music by Harry De Costa

CHAS. HARRIS
NEW YORK
CANADIAN, AMERICAN AND LONDON OFFICE, 30 ERECT, CANADA
LONDON AND SYDNEY
The Wireless Man.

Words by Louis Berk.
Music by Harry De Costa.

Tempo di Valse.

When you're out at sea, you're as safe as can be.
When you're there with a man we all know tear,
For your sweet-heart is taking a trip.

He is always a float, and on most ev'ry
She is soon out of sight, and approach of the Copyright MCMIX by Chas. K. Harris.

Rights for Mechanical instruments reserved.
International Copyright Secured.
boat You may meet him where ever you go.

With his brave steady hand, keeps in touch with the
But you sadly turn home and you're sitting aland, He will cheer you all up for he can lone, And you're feeling the bluest of blue

For a message to send we all look to our
Just then your doorbell rings, and the messenger

The Wireless Man, 4
friend The Wireless sings An Aerogram.

Chorus.

I'm safe on the ship with the wireless man, No danger when he is with me For he is the one sends the 'Aerogram', And the call of the famed "C. Q. D." Each spark that he sends brings a smile at home, Where some one is thinking of you,

The Wireless Man 4

And if you get the blues, who's the man brings you news, It's the Wireless man I'm man.