

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town..... Chicago State..... Illinois No. 999 Church..... Chicago Temple, Date of Dec. 29 promised to Southeast Corner Clark & Washington Sts. Completion complete work in Donor and Address 2 or 3 mos.
..... Installed in June 1924
Architect Holabird & Roche Architects Quality of Glass Price 1200.00
1400 Monroe Building, Chicago, Illinois
Denomination Contract with The Linden Company, (M. E. Johnson) and Minister..... 1216 Michigan Avenue, Chicago and the Chicago Methodist Episcopal Aid Society, a corporation of Chicago.
Footage 44 square feet Sizes, full daylight
Ventilators Set by Contractor
Position in Church Rose window over Clark Street entrance Height from floor see below* Protec- Groove / " Stone
tion Glass Rabbet Wood
Points of compass **
Quality of light West exposure

Inscription

Design wanted..... Staging.....

Shipping address..... Blue-prints Received.....

Bill to..... Templets.....

Photos of Cartoons Mailed.....

General Information *This rose window occupies almost the full height of the second story, and opens into a class room about 25 feet in width.

It is realized that the effect from this window will be wasted to a great extent, and it is intended to illuminate the window to get the best possible night effect.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.