Charles J. Connick: Designer and Worker in Stained and Leaded Glass: Nine Harcourt Street, Boston, Massachusetts

City or Town: Washington, D.C.
State:
No. 958

Church: Sulpician Seminary, Brookland Station
Date of Completion:
Donor and Address: Washington, D.C.

Architect: Maginnis & Walsh
Quality of Glass:
Denomination and Minister: Rev. Joseph V. Nevins, Father Hickey

Footage: 11 ft. (each panel 14 1/2")
Sizes, Full:
Ventilators: No Ventilators
Set by:

Position in Church: Assembly Hall
Base Finishes: Groove Stone

Height from floor: 5 ft. from floor
Foundation Glass: Rabbet Wood

Points of compass: North a little west

Inscription: All the materials, by any means, should be of the same color (excepting self all Tancre in which of course are white; red and other colors may be freely)

Design wanted: used on the field of purple Staging, blue or green.

Shipping address:

Bill to: Tempellets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information: Each medallion contains 1 ft 4 1/2 inches.

1. Tonsure
2. Porter
3. Lector
4. Exorcist

5. Acolyte
Base of medallion is
6. Sub deaconship 5 feet from floor.

7. Deaconship
8. Priesthood

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.