Charles J. Connick: Designer and Worker in Stained and Leaded Glass: Nine Harcourt Street, Boston, Massachusetts

City or Town: Pittsburgh, State: Pa., No.: 1012

Church: Calvary Church, Shady Ave., Pittsburgh. Completion: January 1, 1925.

Donor and Address:

Architect:

Denomination: Episcopal

and Minister: Rev. Edwin J. Van Etten

Footage: 30' Each lancet, Total 60 Feet. Sizes, full Ventilators: None.

Position in Church: North Transept.

Height from floor: 30 ft. Protection Glass: None.

Points of compass: None.

Quality of light: Arial (for Silas)

Inscription: In memory of Dr. A. J. Davis, one of the early friends and founders of this parish.

(for Cornelius) "To the glory of God and in loving memory of Catherine A. Holmes, 1857 - 1924."

Design wanted: For use in the episcopal See of the bishop of Western New York.

Shipping address: Calvary Church, Shady Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Bill to: Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed.

General Information: Cornelius and Silas, Transsept Window.

Cornelius holding an emblem combining the Roman Eagle with the white cross for Christianity, symbolizing his conversion. The lamp of faith is shown on the shield which is blue.

St. Silas is a bishop and teacher. The book symbolizes this distinction.

The Shield represents Corinth of which tradition says Silas was Bishop.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.