CHARLES J. CONNICK: DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS: NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town: Washington, State: D.C., No. 1570

Church: Army Medical Center Chapel,

Donor and Address: "The Gray Ladies",

Architect: George G. Will, Washington, D.C.

Denomination and Minister:

Footage: 6 feet each.

Sizes, full sight

Ventilators: in base of each window.

Set by

Position in Church: Two side Morning Chapel Windows.

Height from floor: 6 feet.

Protection Glass: Groove Stone

Rabbet Wood

Points of compass: East.

Quality of light: East.

Inscription: None - Letter from Miss Lower of February 9th.

Design wanted: at Once.

Staging: Blueprints

Shipping address: Received

Bill to: Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information: Similar to the Morning Chapel Chancel Window.

This window is to be a memorial. Miss Lower will send us an inscription, which will be very brief.

"I have made a typical design for the two little side windows in the same Chapel (Morning Chapel), introducing more detail than was suggested in the altar window." (From letter to Miss Lower of Feb. 16, 1931.)

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.