General Information Subject: - Letter of July 20th 1927 -

"For the four chancel windows I would suggest medallions, also large & small, elongated & square, or circular, the great incidents of the passion. - Later suggestion in the letter of July twenty-seven not approved. (over) floor plan on the other side.

I think the blues of the medallion background should be a little lighter than those in Greensburg, perhaps even a little lighter than in the Princeton medallions. I should keep the figures and accessories opaque against the blue ground. That's a fine scheme in a hot light. (extract from C.J.C.'s letter Sept. 2, 1928.)
