Charles J. Connick: Designer and Worker in Stained and Leaded Glass: Nine Harcourt Street, Boston, Massachusetts

City or Town: Jackson Heights, New York. No. 1227
Date of Completion: Christmas 1928
Donor and Address: Saint Mark's Church, Hayes Avenue, between Twenty-Fourth and Twenty-Fifth Streets.

Architect: H. T. Carsewell, Associate, N.Y. City (Tel. Havemeyer 4573) Denomination: Episcopal
and Minister: Rev. Raymond Leeds Scaife, 169 23rd Street, Jackson Heights, N.Y.

Footage: 59-2-8
Sizes, full: Set by

Ventilators: No

Position in Church: East Chancel Window

Height from floor: 16' 6" ft. Protec - No provision for Groove Stone Cut Points of compass: East. Chancel gets direct sunlight in early morning.
Quality of light: Gets unobstructed light. Gets little or no surface light.
Inscription: None

Design wanted: Staging
Shipping address: Blue-prints

Bill to: Templets
Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information: East Window to be rich in color, something like Gary window. Mr. Scaife leaves everything to us - Design when we can, window when we can make it.

Dark will be advisable as the Church is unusually bright.
This window could be rich and dark with brilliant spots of red.
Side windows #1228.

Note: West window has 3 vents. Lower half influenced by brown tan building 40 or 60 feet away.
For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.