CHARLES J. CONNICK: DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS: NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town: Denver, Colorado. State: No. 1032

Date of Completion: St. John's Cathedral.

Donor and Address: Mr. William B. Berger, Colorado National Bank, Denver, Colorado.

Architect: No. 1032

Denomination: Glass

Footage: $2000.00

Ventilators: 40 ft.

Sizes, full sight

Ventilation: same as "Resurrection" window #995.

Set by:

Position in Church: aisle window (first opening on east)

Height from floor: Protection Glass

Protection: Groove 1/2" Stone

Points of compass: Rabbet Wood

East:

Quality of light: "To the Glory of God and in loving memory of William B. Berger - 1839-1890 and Margaret Kountze Berger - 1845-1922"

Inscription:

Design wanted: Staging

Shipping address: Blue-prints

Received:

Bill to: Template

Photos of Cartoons Mailed:

General Information: Subject: Christ at the Home of Mary and Martha.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.