General Information North window, grisaille with a few medallions in it to let in light. - and we want that in grisaille of a warm tone - everything in a warm tone - and I personally would like a medallion of the Agnus Dei and any other suitable and decorative. And please try to hold the cost within as modest limits as is suitable, - the finest work of course to go over the altar.

*They decided not to have me only the one over

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

"The floor is to be of reddish brick or tile - and the walls Bedford or sand stone, and the effect light and warm rather than cold, but no pink used in the glass, but yellow, green, blue, and some red."
