General Information Figure of Christ in center panel and scenes from the Life of Christ in relation to Children in the side medallions. (The side panels to contain figures of Christ also with children)

Mrs. Amory wants more color in her window than there is in the Simpkins window. They (both Mr. Connick and Mrs. Amory) agreed that this window would have to harmonize with the Simpkins. Have brighter colors in the two medallions, and also more color in some of the diamond quarries.

(If possible, have the figures in the side panels larger than those in the Simpkins, but have them harmonize.)
