In Memoriam

John Punnett Peters, Ph.D., SC.D., D.D.

Rector of this Church, 1893-1919

This window is erected by the Church and by his grateful parishioners as a testimonial to a long and distinguished pastorate.

Mr. Connick wrote Dr. McCandless, April 17, 1931 - "You will find that I have arranged for four small square shapes like rosettes in the actual design. These will cover the screws that hold the tablets in place.

Tablet inscription for one of the two in memory of William Richmond Peters and Helen Heiser Peters.

IN MEMORIAM.

1850 William Richmond Peters 1931

"Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle?

.....Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life and doeth the thing which is right and speaketh the truth from his heart."

Tablet inscription - one of the two in memory of Rev. Dr. John P. Peters and William Richmond Peters. -

IN MEMORIAM.

WILLIAM RICHMOND PETERS

1872 - TREASURER; VESTRYMAN, WARDEN - 1931.

The Church dedicates this window in grateful recognition of sixty years of invaluable service.
