CHARLES J. CONNICK: DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS: NINE HARcourt STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town: Milton, State: Mass. No.: 1794
Date of Completion: September 6, 1954.
Church: Residence of Charles L. Swan, Jr.,
Donor and Mrs. Charles L. Swan, Jr.,
Address: 1451 Brush Hill Road [2 houses from end, about 3 miles from Mattapan Sq.]

Quality of Glass: See other side.

Architect Denomination and Minister

Footage
Sizes, full

Ventilators
Set by

Position in Church
Protection Glass
Groove
Stone Rabbet
Wood

Height from floor

Points of compass

Quality of light

Inscription

Design wanted
Staging
Blueprints
Shipment address
Received

Bill to Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information: Sandwich Glass Medallions to be put in leaded glass there as follows:
In the Living Room - the Pegasus and Fountain. Also, the Blue Swan and the Bluejay.
In the Dining Room - the Peacock (Center).
In the Play House (West) - the White Rabbit and the new Alice.

We are to take out the sections (transoms) insert cardboard in the openings, bring the panels here and insert the medallions.

They are to be air tight and water tight.

(over)

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.
Living Room

Pegasus $50.00
Fountain 45.00
Swan 45.00
Bluejay 45.00
Peacock 50.00
White Rabbit 40.00
Alice 40.00

315.00
100 Labor, setting, etc.
415.00 Billed.