The rose windows will just be very simple glass - just for color effect. Symbols - possibly the Lamb of God in the chancel, symbols of the Old and New Testament in the transepts, and something to symbolize the Immaculate Conception in the front was also mentioned.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.