

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Somerville. State Mass. No. 1881 Church Church of the Immaculate Conception. Date of Donor and Completion
Address
Architect John McPherson, 250 Huntington Avenue, Quality of Denomination Boston, Tel: Kenmore 6462. Glass and Minister Roman Catholic. Father Manning rector.
Footage Front rose 19 1/2'; other roses 12 1/2' sight Ventilators Set by Rose in front (different).
Position in Church Two transepts and chancel roses are all the same.
Front rose 23 feet' Protection Glass Groove Stone Height from floor others 19' Rabbet Wood
Points of compass
Quality of light Front of church faces northwest, the sides southwest and northeast.
Inscription

Design wanted Staging
Shipping address Blue-prints
Received

Bill to Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information The rose windows will just be very simple glass - just for color effect. Symbols - possibly the Lamb of God in the chancel, symbols of the Old and New Testament in the transepts, and something to symbolize the Immaculate Conception in the front was also mentioned.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.