

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Pittsburgh, State Pa. No. 1818
Date of
Church Heinz Chapel of the University of Pittsbgr Completion January.
Donor and Address .....
Architect ..... Quality of Glass $150 to $200. They Denomination ..... to pay for it.*
and Minister .....
Footage ..... sight
..... Sizes, full .....
Ventilators ..... Set by .....
South transept window, between the second and third permanent bars.
Position in Church left hand lancet.
Height from floor ..... Protec- Groove Stone
tion Glass ..... Rabbet ..... Wood
Points of compass
Quality of light .....
Inscription .....
.....
Design wanted ..... Staging .....
Shipping address ..... Blue-prints
..... Received .....
.....
Bill to ..... Templets .....
Photos of Cartoons Mailed .....
General Information Note: The boxes that the sample was sent in are at the Acme Stained Glass Company. Mr. Wiltman is the head of the Company and helped Jim put the glass in. He can undoubtedly take it down and return it when it is to be done.
.....
This panel is to suggest the actual color scheme of the finished windows.
It is to be done in simple cutting, but is to have some real color, and some sections of stencils.
.....
~~*Nov. 22, 1934. C.J.C. gave Mr. Weber a price of about $3.70 per foot if we~~ ~~didn't use actual armatures. (See report of Nov. 22, 1934.)~~
FOR TEMPORARY GLASS PRICES - See Schedule of Jan 1, 1935. This is the latest.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.