The Great West Window in Saint George's Church, Maplewood, New Jersey.

The Kemp Memorial.

This window celebrates four notable Saints of Christendom: Saint George, Saint Isabel, Saint Ursula, and Saint Francis. Each bears the symbol, by which he is traditionally identified. Saint George is in armour, with the spear and shield, inscribed with the ruby cross. Saint Isabel wears the Queen's crown and holds a symbol - the Monastery of the Humility of the Blessed Virgin, which she founded. Saint Ursula's is the ship of her Pilgrimage. Saint Francis is represented with the animals he loved so well.

In the smaller panels beneath are medallions related to the figures above. Saint George conquering the dragon; Saint Isabel giving alms to the poor; Saint Ursula with the children under her protection; and Saint Francis again with the birds, animals, and the wolf, Gubio, who recognized the gentle kindness of this devout Saint.

In the tracery are Angelic figures with symbols of the Eight Bentitudes:

The Dove . . . Blessed ere the Poor in Spirit.
The Torch . . . They that Mourn.

The Lamb . . . The Meek.

The Sword and Book . The Righteous.

The Crown and Palm . The Persecuted.

The Olive Branch . The Peacemakers.

The Lily . . . The Pure in Heart.

The Broken Sword . The Merciful.

Outlining and defining the figure panels and medallions, and forming a border pattern, is a growing vine of conventional design through which other symbols may be recognized, - the Cross, the Fleur-de-lys, the Rose, and Descending Doves.

The counterchange of color in the field surrounding the figures, medallions, and border, adds interest to the color composition of pure blue and ruby, accented with touches of green, gold, and brown - with a thread of white throughout.

The Kemp arms at the left serve as a colorful introduction to the memorial inscription across the base of the window.
