Windows to be in keeping with the other windows we made there.
The south window is for Mr. Smith, and the North for his daughter Helen.
Dr. Anderson wrote: "Mr. Smith was an elder in the church for over 50 years and was the leader of young people in this large chapel. He was a Yale man and interested in young men for the ministry. For these reasons and because I believe this window can stand color and plenty of it I am making bold (with your permission) to suggest that

(1) The top 2 panels of this window as well as the top 2 of the north set be in keeping with the idea of worship which you have so well expressed in the Forgan windows.

(2) That since Elijah was one of the older prophets and since Mr.
