General Information: We are to make typical sketches of the various windows to show less or greater cost, but they now have a good prospect for the Baptistry window. This Baptistry window should be well related to the others, but with special emphasis on color and form. "The Baptism".

For the other windows we should develop a plan of subjects to include notable characters of both the Old and the New Testaments, with implications of noble qualities of the Christian life as expressed, for instance, in the Beatitudes of Our Lord and St. Paul's Fruit of the Spirit.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.
