City or Town: Boston, State: Mass., No.: 2086

Church: Holy Cross Cathedral, Date of Completion: 5/6/65
Donor and Address: Rev. Henry M. O'Connor, 75 Union Park Street, Boston.

Architect: Glass: $4,750.00
Denomination and Minister: Sizes, full
Footage: Sight
Ventilators: Set by

Position in Church: Repair windows damaged by hurricane.

Height from floor: Protec-
Points of compass: Glass
Quality of light: Groove
Inscription: Stone

Design wanted: Staging
Shipping address: Blueprints

Bill to: Temples

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information: Repair
Mr. George Allen, Western Waterproofing Co., Inc., 82 West Dedham Street, Boston, Mass. 4100. Allen is the foreman on repairing the protection glass at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.

Scaffolding by: The Patent Scaffolding Company (South Boston 2688), Their estimate $1,250.00 (metal scaffold).

Letter of Jan. 29, 1939 with estimate for

Scaffolding: $925 = South windows.

Principally the great transept and part of the nave. This includes scaffold.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.
Feb. 4, 1939. Wrote Fr. O'Connor, about entire statement, and about four in the south aisle to be repaired. Estimate for these is now $325.00, including cartage costs. These to be done in better weather. See # 2119.