CHRIST FIGURE.

~~*first price for the painting of the central figure, but we told
Mr. Maginnis we would do this within their allowance whatever that was.~~

~~Mr. Kennedy reports that they do not get very much daylight illumination from the windows, and what there is of it is a very blue light on account of the quantity of blue in the windows. At the present time they have powerful one thousand watt lamps inside the arch above which throws down a strong light, but very dominant shadows. Undoubtedly this will have to be corrected~~

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

when the reredos is installed, and they are planning to do this, studying the light very carefully with the idea of installed lights in the sides of the arches, behind the pulpit canopy and other strategic points.
