General Information Mr. Connick's idea is to have the women's figure on one side - perhaps reaching to Christ. Group of poor on the other side. Inscription in beautiful lettering - dispersed through the field of this second panel.

Description of sketch: "I have symbolized the verse from Proverbs to excellent purpose: "She stretched out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy". I have suggested the implication of aid and protection to the young and old alike, and I have grouped the figures in warm colors in fields of pure limpid blue; the traditional color symbolism of divine wisdom and truth. Although the lettering is only roughly suggested in the sketch, it is large enough so that it can be developed to read clearly from the floor."

This is the main entrance to the building
