See photographs of windows now in place.

The panel to be made now is devoted to The Passion of Our Lord in the Garden of Gethsemane. He is symbolized kneeling in prayer with an Angel above holding the Chalice, - "Father, if thou be willing, remove this Chalice from me" Below are His three sleeping companions - Peter, James and John. In the base is the text, "Not My will but Thine be Done". (St. Luke 22:42), together with the memorial inscription. At the left is the Chalice and Cross, and at the right, the Pelican feeding its young, both symbols of Christ's sacrifice. Through the border runs a growing vine of pomegranate, symbolical of the Unity of the Christian Church.
(The Crucifixion panel to be done at a later time).
