General Information Isaiah and Saint John the Baptist.
In this window the plan is to have one great Old Testament prophet, namely Isaiah of the Exile prophesying the coming of the Messiah who would bring peace, and John the Baptist as the forerunner of the apostles.

to the upper nave windows. As planned, the first is to the prophet Isaiah, and John the Baptist.
The prophet of peace, holds the prophetic scroll of the seal of fire, with which the angelic messenger purified his lips.

John the Baptist, clothed in rough chains, wears the shell of his sign and his usual rustic crossed staff.

They are accompanied by the usual numbers of the angelic hosts, bearing trumpets and censers of praise and prayer.
