The Great Legendary Figures.

In the first panel, Abraham is suggested dividing the land with Lot, with the departure of Abraham from Ur for Canaan, and the Sacrifice of Isaac at either side.

The central panel is devoted to Isaac, suggesting the servant bringing Rebekah to Isaac in the fields. At one side is Esau the hunter with the deer; and on the other Jacob's deception of his fabber.

The final panel symbolizes Jacob and his twelve sons, with his vision at Bethel and wrestling with the angel at Peniel represented at either side.
