

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND
LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Plymouth, State N.H. No. 3091

Church Chapel of Holderness School Date of Completion by June 10, 1950.
Donor and Dr. and Mrs. Edric Weld. for Commencement.
Address

Architect Quality of $20. each panel.
Denomination Glass (~~$120 for the 6 panels~~)
and Minister ($8.00 per foot).
$60 for the 3 panels.

Footage 2 1/2' each panel - 15' total. sight Loss. 23.24
Sizes, full

Ventilators Set by

Position in Church Windows in the front entry in the chapel, - 3 in a row on each side. Protec- Groove Stone

Height from floor tion Glass Rabbet Wood
Points of compass
Quality of light

Inscription

Design wanted Staging

Shipping address Blue-prints
Received

Bill to Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information Very light amber - cathedral glass, in simple leaded pattern.

To be set in the sash which Dr. Weld brought to the studio.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.