General Information This window is given in memory of their sexton - a very faithful servant of the Church.

Keep design quite simple, with a light field and colorful medallion, perhaps in the nature of our windows in Dalton - a little kneeling angel with the traditional pitcher and glass of service, with a significant text - from Ephesians, - "With good will doing service as to the Lord."

We have completed our study of the little window on the stairs in the narthex at Emmanuel Church, and are sending you the color sketch herewith.

The very light and brilliant field is enriched with the angelic figure bearing the pitcher and cup of refreshing water symbolizing Service; while the open book is inscribed with the text from Ephesians, - "With good will doing service as to the Lord."
