

No 3875

Place Knoxville, Tennessee.

~~Early part of 1957. 5/27/56~~

Building S. James' Episcopal Church, 1101 Broadway
N.E. Knoxville 17, Tennessee.

Date of Completion June 1, 1957.

Persons Interested Frank N. Radcliffe, Hamilton Mat'l Bank of Knoxville.

Price: $1700. ($60.71)

extra bids like 1900 7/25/56

Rev. John H. Bull, active Rector

Minister Reverend Eugene H. Hopper, Rector. Emeritus.

Denomination Episcopal.

Architect

Loss 14% 240.62

Vents Yes, we supply (We have on hand).

Position in Church Aisle, North, fifth from chancel (last one on this side).

Height from floor 8 1/2 feet.

Protection Glass

Groove Rabbet

Metal Stone Wood

Exposure North.

Footage 28 feet.

Inscription "In Loving Memory of William T. McNamara and Mildred McNamara."

Design wanted soon.

Staging

Templates Installation by Standard Glass Co. of Knoxville.

Blueprints

General Information Saint Philip and Saint James the Less.

Mr. McNamara was a Thirty-two Degree Mason, and Mrs. McNamara a member of Eastern Star, and the family would like the emblems of these Masonic orders introduced into the lower part of the panels.

See photographs of windows in place.

North Aisle Window, Fourth from the Chancel,
the McManara Memorial,
Saint James Church
Knoxville, Tennessee

This window is devoted to Our Lord's friends, the Apostles Saint Philip and Saint James the Less.

Saint Philip holds his traditional symbol, the basket of bread and the crossed staff, while Saint James the Less has the fuller's bat, symbol of his martyrdom.

On the shields below are other symbols of the Saints.
Under Saint Paul the spear and the patriarchal cross, and under Saint James the Less, the saw.

As in the other windows, kneeling angels hold scrolls inscribed with the names of the Saints.

Near the base are symbols of the Thirty-Second Degree Mason and the Eastern Star (to be developed in careful detail in the full size drawings and the actual glass).

Across the bottom is the memorial inscription, -

"In loving memory of William T. McManara and Mildred^{C.} McManara".

Note: Re: Saint Philip: Change St. Philip's Square to a double cross (because we already have the square for Thomas).

Take out the circle that St. James the Less holds - just make it the fuller's bat.

IMPORTANT NOTE: 4/18/57. O.E.S. reports: Our north window nearest the chancel is too dark, especially in the blues. The other one is just right. We should keep the rest of these north windows light (I have spoken to Edmund, who is cutting them now.).