General Information Medallion type of window decided upon.

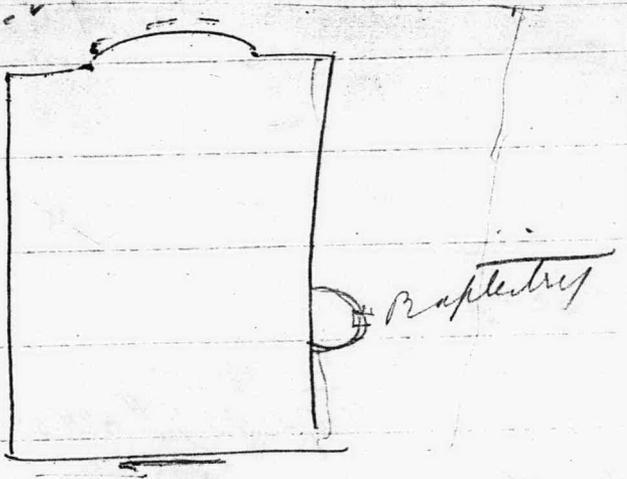

This window is to have a large upper panel devoted to the Baptism of Christ by S. John the Baptist, with a lower medallion devoted to ~~some~~ scene of early Christian Baptism that Monsignor Cartwright is hunting for. He knows what he has in mind; but hasn't located it yet. I think it must be some early painting.*

*Monsignor Cartwright sent Page 255 of Bible History. Be sure to return this to him. - The subject shows St. Peter and Paul in prison at Rome. It depicts the incident of the baptism of their fellow prisoners after St. Peter had caused a miraculous fountain of water to spring up in their prison cell.

Criticisms of sketch.: Monsignor wants the lower medallion more like the drawing he sent; that is, the kneeling figure in front of the figure in green; and turn his hand to hold water with drops of water coming from it to the head of the kneeling figure. In other words, he is really baptizing the kneeling figure. Peter should be almost bald headed. The fountain is only incidental to the Baptism.

IMPORTANT. THIS BAPTISTRY WINDOW SHOULD BE AS DARK AND HEAVY AS THE ORGAN WINDOW.
