General Information: To be designed to represent the First Prayer Book service at Jamestown, and to harmonize with the St. George and the Dragon window (Robert Hunt's Communion Service).

This window will go next to the St. George window - see colored photograph.
design for the Anson Memorial Window, and are sending you the color sketch herewith.

As planned, it symbolizes the First Prayerbook Service at Jamestown.

This sketch is designed to suggest color
and light in action, and all the detail of line
and form is left for development in the full size drawings and the actual glass.

It occurs to me now that the dominant medallion might be somewhat larger, with the figures in larger scale, and perhaps not quite so many of them, so that more definition will be possible.

We would also render the rustic Cevenion
Rail and the sailcloth overhead in a clearer manner.

The memorial inscription can be designed cross the base, as in the Saint George Window.
