General Information These to be related to Baptism - Saint John the Baptist in one panel; The Baptism of the Ethiopian Eunuch (Acts 8:27) in another; and The Great Commission of Saint Matthew (28:18) in the other, although this would have to be considered in relation to the large west window whose lower panels are near the font.

*O.E.S. reports: The ventilator frames cut into the openings rather deeply, and we will have to take them into more account than we did in the sketches. Here the alternating medallion shapes would be good, but the shapes should be subtle and broken into not obvious. There is some question whether we should have just the Baptism, or the Baptism subject in the central vestibule window.

Important notes: Include the citations in the three medallions, as in earlier windows, as follows:

For the center panel: (Saint John the Baptist), "Saint ~~Matthew III:1-4~~ ^{MARK 1:1-8}".

For the Baptizing of the Ethiopian ~~XXXXXX~~ "Acts VIII:37-38"

For the Great Commission Saint Matthew XXVIII:18-20"

Note: these panels should be kept as light as possible, while retaining a pure color quality. The illumination seems especially important here, so that one will have no difficulty in getting around.

Note: We are to send photographs of the cartoons for approval.
