Place: Fairhaven, Massachusetts

Buildings:
Chapel of Our Lady's Haven
Convent of Sisters for the Aged and Infirm

Persons Interested:
Reverend Mother M. Alodia, C.M. Mother Superior, 71 Center Street, Fairhaven, Massachusetts

Price: $200 (4333)

Ministers:
Reverend Raymond T. Considine, S. William

Church: 42 Chicago St., Fall River

Architect:
Mr. Kendall T. Phillips, Hopedale, Massachusetts

Vents:

Position in Church: Transom over the door (rectangular)

Height from floor: about 8 feet

Protection: Glass

Groove: Metal, Wood

Exposure: Not much light, shaded by porch. West

Footage: 6'

Inscription:

Design wanted: Soon

Staging: They decided to eliminate this window.

Templates: Blueprints

General Information: Keep light and airy and delicate.

Symbol of: Sacred Monogram of Blessed Virgin, Crowned, in center; with the fleur-de-lis at the left, and the rose at the right.
Following Father Considine's suggestion for symbols of the Blessed Mother and the Sacraments, we have devoted the tracery over the door to the Blessed Virgin, representing her traditional crowned monogram at the center, with her fleur-de-lis and rose symbols at either side.