As planned, it is devoted to Saint Andrew, who holds his symbol, the traditional iagonal cross.

He stands before the sea with a boat and a suggestion of the old fish houses. Before making the full size drawings, we would go up and photograph them for clearer identification.

In the field below is a book inscribed with the cross, and a suggestion of floral pattern.

BE SURE TO HAVE THE FISH HOUSE THE ONE STORY GRAY THAT HAS WEATHERED WITH THE YEARS, and not the two-story green one in the design. (This will be photographed)
