General Information: To have the Welcoming Christ - include little kneeling figures of an elderly couple - and perhaps figure of a young girl at prayer, to suggest the theme "Come unto me, all ye who are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

The window is given by a young lady of 17 in memory of her grandparents.

See photograph of opposite window in place.
We have been studying the fascinating possibilities for the stair window and are sending you a very rough color suggestion for its design.

The figure of the Welcoming Christ with outstretched arms suggests the theme, - "Come unto me, all ye who are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

Small figures of an elderly couple in prayer are indicated in the field above, and a young lady, also kneeling in prayer, is designed in the field below, with a ribbon for the memorial text. The upper figures might be made a little larger.

The grapes vines outlining the medallion and enriching the field suggests the unity and fruitfulness of the church through Our Lord's significant words, - "I am the vine, ye are the branches."

The text at the base to read: "Come unto Me...and I will give you rest."
