General Information To be devoted to Christ with the Doctors in the Temple. This is the last panel of the aisle windows. See photographs of windows in place.

We have completed our study of the design for Mrs. Enholm's window and are sending you the color sketch, herewith.

It is devoted to the young Christ with the Doctors in the Temple. He stands in the midst of the group who are astonished at His understanding.

In the upper right corner is the figure of Mary, His Mother, who has come to find Him.

A space at the base is indicated for the memorial inscription.
