WEST WALL ELEV.

INTERIOR

IMPORTANT: The two designs were made at separate times, and they will have to be pulled into harmony in color, scale and pattern.

We are also including a rough sketch for one of the short windows over the door to the cloister where we planned to represent the symbols of Moses and Elisha. Here we have the burning bush seen by Moses in the wilderness, and the Tablets of the Law which he received from God on Mount Sinai. These windows, as designed, would cost six hundred and seventy-five dollars each.
