General Information: Two medallions for the blue windows.
We have prepared rough suggestions for the two medallions in the blue window.

They symbolize the Lamp of Learning and Enlightenment, and the Anchor Cross of Hope and Faith—Scales of Justice.

I think they could well be placed in the sections just above the central horizontal dividing rail.

To a degree, these oval shapes reflect the shapes through the fields of the central windows.

I am enclosing photographs of other symbols of this character, illustrating how they work out. The Lamp and Anchor Cross are among them.

If you prefer other symbols they can, of course, be developed in the same manner.

I think we can hold these to three hundred dollars for the pair.

With cordial greetings,

Sincerely yours,
