General Information Saint Peter - at the center he is represented as the fisherman, with the oar and net. His companions are Aeneas who he found at Lydda and cured of the palsy, and Tabitha raised from the dead. At the left Our Lord calls Peter from his boat to be His disciple, - "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men" (Saint Matthew 4:19), and at the right, an angel releases him from prison, - "The Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me" (The Acts 12:11).
