General Information..... ST. FRANCIS.....

The birds are included, a symbol of the Sun, and the famous Wolf of Gubbio. He carries the crucifix in reference to his receipt of the stigmata. Of course, either or both of these latter identifying symbols may be omitted if you prefer.

Changes to be made:

- a. Omit the Crucifix, slightly raise the left arm, and have a bird perched on the left wrist.
- b. In most lights, we feel St. Francis in the cartoon has a rather dour face, we would wish a more happy expression.
- c. The Wolf of Gubbio lacks any feel of fierceness. Could his head and mouth carry an impression of his original ferocity, although we know he became a loving and kindly wolf through the love of St. Francis.
