SEC. 1225. "The President may, upon the application of any established college or university within the United States, having capacity to educate, at the same time, not less than one hundred and fifty male students, detail an officer of the Army to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof; but the number of officers so detailed shall not exceed * * * [thirty] at any time, and they shall be apportioned throughout the United States, as nearly as may be practicable, according to population. Officers so detailed shall be governed by general rules prescribed, from time to time, by the President. The Secretary of War is authorized to issue, at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of any small-arms or pieces of field-artillery belonging to the government, and which can be spared for that purpose, such number of the same as may appear to be required for military instruction and practice by the students of any college or university under the provisions of this section; and the Secretary shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof, and for the return of the same when required."

SEC. 1260. "Any retired officer may, on his own application, be detailed to serve as professor in any college." [But while so serving, such officer shall be allowed no additional compensation.]

I. The following regulations, in regard to detail of officers of the Army at established colleges and universities within the United States, are prescribed by the President, under the above laws:

1. Details "shall be apportioned throughout the United States as nearly as may be practicable according to population"; such States as do not contain sufficient population to entitle them to one officer will be grouped with one or more contiguous States or Territories, so that the combined population of the group will allow the detail of one or more officers, to the extent of thirty officers in all.

2. As a rule, captains of companies, regimental staff officers, or officers who have served less than three years with their regiments or corps, or who have recently completed a tour of detached duty, will not be eligible. No details will be made that will leave a battery, troop, or company without two officers for duty with it. The period of detail will not be longer than three years.

3. Retired officers, if acceptable to any institution, may, on their own request, be detailed on this duty among the thirty authorized. Besides this number, any retired officer may arrange to serve at a college or university without detail from or reference to the War Department; but unless detailed under section 1225, Revised Statutes, such service will not entitle the institution to the arms, &c., provided by that section.

Pain - 3
 N.Y. - 2

4. No detail will be made for any institution except upon an application from its proper representatives, nor will any officer be so detailed unless acceptable to the authorities of the institution, who should make their selection from the officers available for this duty.

5. Applications for officers should be addressed to the Secretary of War, and should duly certify the number of male students the college or university has the capacity to educate, and should also be accompanied by the last printed catalogue.

6. Officers of the Army desiring a detail at colleges or universities may make application to the Adjutant General, through the usual military channels, for such details; their applications and the recommendations forwarded therewith will, if the officers are available, be furnished to such institutions as may desire to make a selection.

II. The following are the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War for the issue of arms, &c., required for military instruction and practice at colleges and universities, under section 1225, Revised Statutes:—

1. The number of pieces of field artillery, with necessary implements, and of small-arms and accoutrements, which may be issued for the purposes of military instruction to each selected college and university having an officer of the Army stationed thereat, is limited to the following, viz:

2 3-inch rifled guns, wrought-iron, model 1861, at $450	$900 00	2 tomions, 3-inch, at 30 cents	$0 60
2 carriages and limbers, 3-inch gun, at $325	650 00	2 vent-covers, at 40 cents	80
2 gunner's haversacks, at $3.35	6 70	1 pendulum hausse, 3-inch	2 50
2 handspikes, trail, at $1	2 00	1 pendulum hausse seat	60
4 lanyards, at 10 cents	40	1 pendulum hausse pouch	75
2 priming-wires, at 10 cents	20	2 paulins, 12 by 15 feet, at $11.75	23 50
4 sponges and rammers, 3-inch, at $1	4 00	150 Springfield "cadet" rifles, cal. .45, with appendages, &c., at $18	2,700 00
4 sponge-covers, 3-inch, at 30 cents	1 20	150 bayonet scabbards, steel, cadet, at 91 cents	136 50
2 tube-pouches, at $1.50	3 00	150 waist belts and plates, at 50 cents	75 00
4 thumbstalls, at 20 cents	80	150 cartridge-boxes, cal. .45, at $1.25	187 50

2. Issue of the above stores will be made by the Chief of Ordnance to any selected institution upon its filing a bond in the penal sum of double the value of the property, conditioned that it will take good care of and safely keep and account for the same, and will, when required by the Secretary of War, duly return the same, within thirty days, in good order, to the Chief of Ordnance United States Army, or such officer or person as the Secretary of War may designate to receive it.

3. To conform to the requirements of the law, the terms "college" and "university" herein used are held to relate to "State institutions, incorporated or public," and not to "mere schools, private or municipal."

4. The following is the blank form of bond to be executed previous to the issue of ordnance and ordnance stores, viz:

* * * * *

5. For practice-firing, the following allowances of ammunition will be made annually to each of the various institutions, viz:

- 1,000 carbine metallic ball-cartridges, cal. .45.
- 1,000 metallic blank cartridges, cal. .45.
- 100 round blank cartridges for 3-inch gun.
- 300 friction primers.

This ammunition will be issued upon requisitions to be forwarded to the Chief of Ordnance by the presidents or superintendents of the institutions; and as annual allowances date in all cases from July 1 of each year, requisitions should be forwarded before or as soon after that date as practicable for the prospective year's supply. Undrawn allowances of one year cannot be drawn in the succeeding year.

6. Regular property returns will be rendered quarterly to the Chief of Ordnance by each president or superintendent of an institution supplied with arms, &c., accounting for all ordnance and ordnance stores issued to the institution under his charge. These returns will be made on the blank forms to be supplied by the Chief of Ordnance.

7. Whenever any institution shall fail to return the public property in its charge within thirty days after demand made by the Secretary of War, the delinquency will be promptly referred to the Attorney General, that the bond of the institution may forthwith be put in suit.

8. All expense of repairs of stores are to be borne by the institution using the same, the Ordnance Department supplying spare parts for repairs at cost price.

Dear Prof. Rogers:

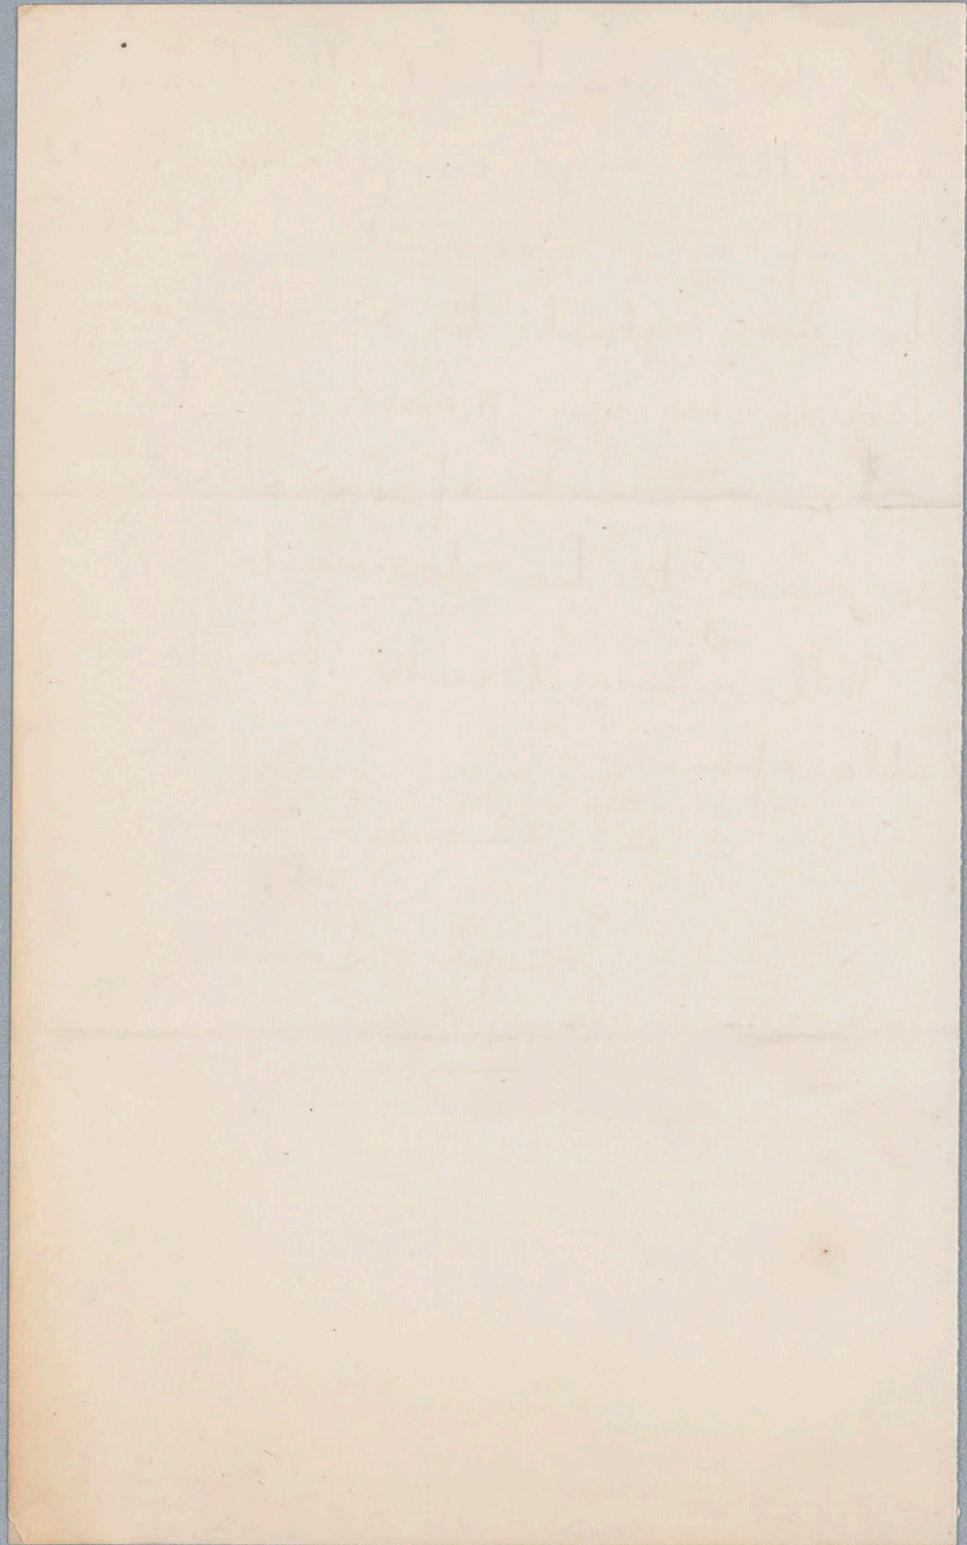

After receiving your kind communication of May 14, I read again Prof. Tyndall's letter to the late Prof. Henry. Prof. Wm. B. Rogers L.L.D.

Dear Sir,

In response to your request, I herewith send to you this statement of the principal professional work upon which I have been engaged since 1873.

In the summer of that year, I was employed upon the test of the Lynn Water Works pumping engine by a board of consulting Engineers consisting of Messrs. Wm. E. Northen of New York, Chas. Bermany of Louisville, the late John D. Kirkwood of Brooklyn, Jos. B. Davis of Boston, and John B. Hoadley of Lawrence.

Later in the season I was engaged upon a similar test of the pumping engine at Lowell, under a similar commission consisting of Messrs. Jas. B. Francis of Lowell, John B. Hoadley and Wm. E. Northen. In addition to the work during this trial, I was employed to compute the results from the observations taken during the tests. Subsequently I was employed in similar work at the second test of the Lynn pumping engine and at the test of the Lawrence pumping engines.

My duties upon these tests consisted in preparation of the apparatus employed making measurements of fuel, water, temperatures and the other data connected with the operation of the machine, including the use of the indicator and of the hook-gauge in the weir measurements of water and in the tabulation of results.

Most of my other work has been more private in its nature, but has consisted of similar tasks for private individuals and corporations and also surveying land, laying out and building roads &c.

I have not had any connection with railroad or bridge work but have made a speciality as far as possible of questions pertaining to hydraulics and the use of steam and water for motive purposes.

In April 1877, I was employed by the Lawrence Spool Co. of Rockport Mass. to design special machinery, and subsequently became superintendent of that corporation. Later I resigned that position and entered the services of the Mill Mutual Insurance Co. as an inspector of the hydraulic service of mills, their construction and such other engineering duties as may be assigned to me. I have no connection with underwriting except indirectly as stated above.

Of my course at the Institute I can merely say that nature has not vouchsafed to me the power of facile acquisition of knowledge; and tasks easily mastered by others, were learned by myself only after persistent and continuous application.

Having prepared for college, my plans were changed at a late day, and I resolved to enter the Institute. After the first year, I met with no conditions (if memory serves aright) excepting in descriptive astronomy at the semi-annual of the third year, and it was made up before the annual examination of that year. I am a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and of the New-England Cotton Manufacturers Association.

Respectfully Submitted,
C. J. Woodbury.

My dear President,
Yours of yesterday is recd. The Vice Pres-was more punctilious than heretofore
-(it may be presumed) because of an opposition engineering. We met his point however by borrowing the
ms. from the House Printing Com
and it was presented in the Senate yesterday, referred to Com. on Library and ordered to be printed. A resolution to print 500 extra presented at earliest. Can state it is in order - I am looking after

I do not anticipate

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the policy of insurance on the property of the Boston Manufacturing Company, and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.

My dear Sir -

In reply to your favor I would say that I shall be most happy to serve on the Committee of the Academy to which is assigned the duty of considering the question of restoring the writing of the Declaration of Independence + the signatures appended thereto.

The subject was referred to me during the Centennial & I gave some study to it at that time, but did not decide upon any method which I thought it safe to apply to this valuable document.

I shall be very glad to take up the subject again

you mention

My Dear Prof,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 17th, notifying me of your appointment of Prof. Loring as third Trustee of the Lyndall fund.
While Prof. Loring is entirely acceptable to myself, I cannot but regret that you did not appoint Prof. Norton — my only reason in favor of his appointment, however being the very one which induced you not to make it, viz., that he is in the immediate vicinity of the other two trustees. In the discussion of questions, which are now likely very soon to arise, as to the application to be made of the income of the fund, ~~the~~ personal intercommunication between the trustees will be indispensable, and frequent consultations may be necessary. This will impose upon Prof. Looming, or upon us who are here, the necessity to making the journey from time to time between New York and Boston which will be somewhat inconvenient.

The solution, however, is as entirely acceptable to me, and I propose to Prof. Youmans, as any one would be at a distance from New York.

Dear, Very sincerely Yours
P. A. P. Garrison

[Circular.]

In addition to the instructions contained in General Orders No. 100, series of 1879, from Headquarters of the Army, concerning details of officers of the Army at colleges, universities, &c., the following instructions from the Secretary of War, concerning the detail of retired officers at such institutions, under the act approved May 4, 1880, are published for the information of all concerned:

The act provides—

That upon the application of any college, university, or institution of learning incorporated under the laws of any State within the United States, having capacity at the same time to educate not less than one hundred and fifty male students, the President may detail an officer of the Army on the retired list to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof; and such officer may receive from the institution to which he may be detailed the difference between his retired and full pay, and shall not receive any additional pay or allowance from the United States.

All officers detailed under section 1225, Revised Statutes, whether from the active or retired list, belong to the thirty officers distributed according to the annexed apportionment, and the institutions to which they are detailed are entitled to the arms provided by that section, under regulations published in General Orders No. 100, series of 1879, from Headquarters of the Army.

The details authorized by the act of May 4, 1880, will be in addition to the thirty allowed by the section referred to, and may be made to institutions of learning of the requisite grade in any State, without reference to population or to the number of officers already serving therein; but there is no provision of law for supplying arms to the institutions receiving details under this act.

Whenever the detail of an officer, under section 1225, Revised Statutes, shall expire at an institution of learning within a State or group of States having a greater number of officers on such duty than the State or group is entitled to under the apportionment, the vacancy so created will not be filled by a detail under the section named, but by a detail, under the act approved May 4, 1880, of such officer on the retired list as the authorities of the institution may select and who may be willing to accept the detail.

Any communication addressed to a retired officer, in care of this office, will be forwarded to his address. The names of all such officers are published in the Army Register.

Under section 1225, Revised Statutes, which requires the thirty officers authorized thereby for detail at colleges, &c., to be distributed throughout the United States, as nearly as practicable, according to population, the following table of apportionment has been adopted, being based on a division of the total population of the United States by the census of 1870 (38,558,371) by 30 (the number of officers authorized), which gives 1,285,279 as the population a State or group of States should have, as nearly as practicable, to be entitled to an officer:

My dear Sir;

A resolution to print five hundred copies of your report passed the Senate this morning.

The proof has been read by Prof. Coffin, and has also, contrary to my anticipation, received a careful revision at my <sup>own</sup> hands. I have therefore concluded that you would be glad to be spared the trouble of proof-reading, especially as sending the proofs so far, would have involved some delay. The "revision" will be received in a few days, and should you desire to see it before the 500 extra copies are printed, it can still be sent to you.

I am detained at home by the condition of the appropriation bills. <sup>2nd House</sup> We have had quite a victory over our opponents.

Dear Mr. President,
I have to thank you for your great kindness in connection with the Academy celebration and the proceedings at the Institute. If you think my little reports and my editorial paragraphs meagre or not sufficiently to the point, I shall promise you better work hereafter, when I hope to have the benefit of your advice.
Mr. Goddard, my kind friend and principal, agrees with me that the Institute has special claims upon our columns and such abilities as we may have. I do not like to entrust these important occasions to reporters, however careful they may be, and if you will favor Mrs. Goddard or me with suggestions, you will find that we are willing and docile. Unhappily my tastes are not scientific, but I deem it of paramount importance that the Scientist should keep in rapport with intellectual leaders. My own notion of true journalism is that of service. I cannot hope to lead others;

but I can follow those who are leaders of thought, and in a humble way I may serve as a middle-man between important men and thoughtful readers. I thank you again and beg leave to add an expression of my fraternal sentiments.

U. S. COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY OFFICE,

Washington, May 28th, 1880.

My dear Sir;

I learn this morning that the printers, although well disposed, cannot keep the type standing any longer. Although the first proofs were required to be returned very soon, I had still hoped to send you the "revise", but it now seems to be out of the question. The report has been very carefully read, however, and I trust will meet your approbation. The haste to print has resulted from the promptitude with which the order to print was made. Anticipating an early adjournment, I attended to that matter at the first opportunity.

Very truly
Yours,

Prof. W<sup>m</sup> B. Rogers;
