

6

[Vinie Burrows Performance Program, n.d.]

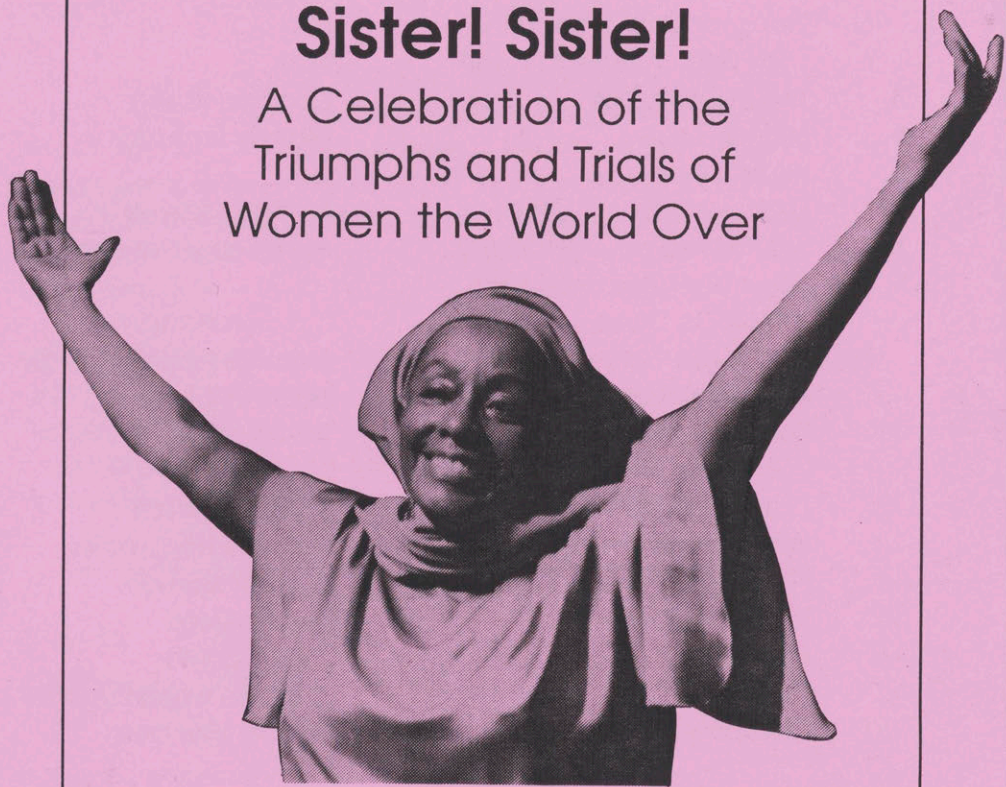

AC533

Black Women in the Academy:
Defending Our Name, 1894-1994
presents...

Vinie Burrows in her one woman show

Sister! Sister!

A Celebration of the
Triumphs and Trials of
Women the World Over

Arranged and Adapted
by Vinie Burrows

Kresge Auditorium, MIT, Cambridge

Vinie Burrows Sister! Sister!

Program

	Creation of the World	Eva Toth
1.	Invocation	Vinie Burrows
2.	A Child is Born (part one)	Sean O'Casey
3. a.	The Mother Only Wanted Three	Egypt
b.	Being on Social Security	U.K.
c.	They Said It Wouldn't Hurt	Mali
4.	The People, Yes	Carl Sandberg
5.	Mandy Mae	Mandy Richards
6.	Bride Mime
7.	Looking at Each Other	Muriel Rukeyser
8.	Jes' Raised an Ole Hillbilly	Aunt Mary Haynes
9. a.	Jesus was Crucified or It Must Be Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
b.	It is Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
10.	A Child is Born (part two)	Sean O'Casey
11.	Song of Lawino	Okot P'Bitek
	(pause)
12.	I Talk to God	Sojourner Truth
13.	When I was Young	Nobuko Miyamoto
14.	Nothing is Private	Abruzzi woman
15.	Rape of Dona	Lee Howard
16.	Liberation	Susan Griffin
17.	Glory	Charlotte Watson Sherman
18.	Detention	Winnie Mandela

Special thanks to Dr. Alan Brody, MIT Theatre Director whose past assistance, encouragement, and faith helped make this production possible. Thanks also to Woody King, available day and night with advice. And special thanks to my friend, Patricia Zipprodt, who believes in me when I doubt myself.

VINIE BURROWS began her career as a child actress, appearing on Broadway with Helen Hayes in "The Wisteria Trees." Her many theatre appearances include the famed State Department world-wide tour of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth" starring Mary Martin and George Abbott. Her many other Broadway and off-Broadway appearances include the original production of Jean Genet's "The Blacks," "The Ponder Heart," "Jezebel's Husband" and "The Green Pastures."

A few years back, Ms. Burrows, disillusioned by the dearth of quality roles for black women, branched out to create and direct her own solo productions. She now has a repertoire of seven completely different one woman shows which have been sponsored on more than 4,000 college campuses, in addition to tours of Holland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Romania, Germany, the United Kingdom, Algeria and Nigeria.

VINIE BURROWS has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors including Actors Equity's prestigious Paul Robeson Award and N.O.W.'s 1992 Susan B. Anthony Award. Ms. Burrows is also a permanent representative to the United Nations for the Women's International Democratic Federation.

---

Director	Alan Brody
Lighting	Herrick Goldman

Thanks to Maureen Costello, Barbara Schulman, MIT Conference Services, the History Department, the Science, Technology and Society Program, Department of Music and Theatre Arts, Campus Activities Complex, Norma Kilson, Rebecca Widom, and our ushers.

Thanks also to our sponsors: the Ford Foundation, the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, the Ms. Foundation, the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the Microsoft Corporation, the MIT Women's Studies Program, and the W.E.B. DuBois Institute at Harvard University.

Sources

Sean O'Casey, "A Child Is Born" from I knock at the door: Swift glances back at things that made me. London: Macmillan Ltd. 1939.

United Nations Year of the Child Secretariat, 1978.

Carl Sandberg, "The People, Yes."

Mandy Mae Richards, "Mandy Mae" from Voices of Survivors. Ncasa News, Spring 1988.

Muriel Rukeyser, "Looking at Each Other" from The Collected Poems of Muriel Rukeyser. New York: McGraw Hill Book Company, 1978.

Aunt Mary Haynes, "Jes' Raised an Old Hill-Billy" from Working, by Studs Terkel.

Carolyn Rodgers, "Jesus was Crucified, Or it must be deep" and "It Is Deep" from how i got ovah. Garden City: Anchor Press/Doubleday, 1975.

Sean O'Casey, "A Child is Born" (Part two). ibid.

Okot P'Bitek, Song of Lawino, Nairobi: East African Publishing House, 1966.

Sojourner Truth, "I Talk to God" from Daughters of Africa, ed. Margaret Busby. New York: Pantheon Books, 1992.

Nobuko Miyamoto, "When I was Young" from Asian Women Journal. University of California, Berkeley, 1971.

Ann Cornelisen, "Nothing Is Private" from Women of the Shadows: A Study of Peasant Women of Southern Italy. Boston: Little Brown, 1976.

Lee Howard, "The Rape of Dona" from Women Surviving Massacres and Men, ed. E. Ethelbert Miller. Washington, DC: Anemone Press.

Susan Griffin, "Liberation" from No More Masks.

Charlotte Watson Sherman, "Glory."

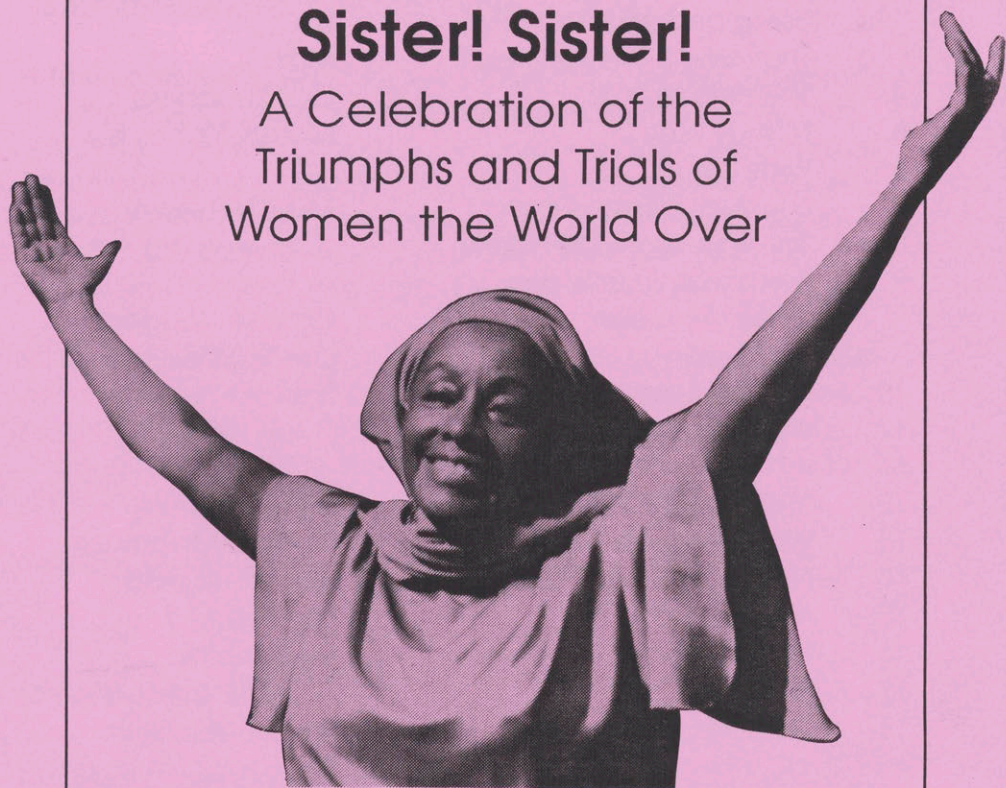

Winnie Mandela, "Detention" from Proceedings of United Nations Center Against Apartheid.

Black Women in the Academy:
Defending Our Name, 1894-1994
presents...

Vinie Burrows in her one woman show

Sister! Sister!

A Celebration of the
Triumphs and Trials of
Women the World Over

Arranged and Adapted
by Vinie Burrows

Kresge Auditorium, MIT, Cambridge

Vinie Burrows Sister! Sister!

Program

	Creation of the World	Eva Toth
1.	Invocation	Vinie Burrows
2.	A Child is Born (part one)	Sean O'Casey
3. a.	The Mother Only Wanted Three	Egypt
b.	Being on Social Security	U.K.
c.	They Said It Wouldn't Hurt	Mali
4.	The People, Yes	Carl Sandberg
5.	Mandy Mae	Mandy Richards
6.	Bride Mime
7.	Looking at Each Other	Muriel Rukeyser
8.	Jes' Raised an Ole Hillbilly	Aunt Mary Haynes
9. a.	Jesus was Crucified or It Must Be Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
b.	It is Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
10.	A Child is Born (part two)	Sean O'Casey
11.	Song of Lawino	Okot P'Bitek
	(pause)
12.	I Talk to God	Sojourner Truth
13.	When I was Young	Nobuko Miyamoto
14.	Nothing is Private	Abruzzi woman
15.	Rape of Dona	Lee Howard
16.	Liberation	Susan Griffin
17.	Glory	Charlotte Watson Sherman
18.	Detention	Winnie Mandela

Special thanks to Dr. Alan Brody, MIT Theatre Director whose past assistance, encouragement, and faith helped make this production possible. Thanks also to Woody King, available day and night with advice. And special thanks to my friend, Patricia Zipprodt, who believes in me when I doubt myself.

VINIE BURROWS began her career as a child actress, appearing on Broadway with Helen Hayes in "The Wisteria Trees." Her many theatre appearances include the famed State Department world-wide tour of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth" starring Mary Martin and George Abbott. Her many other Broadway and off-Broadway appearances include the original production of Jean Genet's "The Blacks," "The Ponder Heart," "Jezebel's Husband" and "The Green Pastures."

A few years back, Ms. Burrows, disillusioned by the dearth of quality roles for black women, branched out to create and direct her own solo productions. She now has a repertoire of seven completely different one woman shows which have been sponsored on more than 4,000 college campuses, in addition to tours of Holland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Romania, Germany, the United Kingdom, Algeria and Nigeria.

VINIE BURROWS has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors including Actors Equity's prestigious Paul Robeson Award and N.O.W.'s 1992 Susan B. Anthony Award. Ms. Burrows is also a permanent representative to the United Nations for the Women's International Democratic Federation.

---

Director	Alan Brody
Lighting	Herrick Goldman

Thanks to Maureen Costello, Barbara Schulman, MIT Conference Services, the History Department, the Science, Technology and Society Program, Department of Music and Theatre Arts, Campus Activities Complex, Norma Kilson, Rebecca Widom, and our ushers.

Thanks also to our sponsors: the Ford Foundation, the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, the Ms. Foundation, the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the Microsoft Corporation, the MIT Women's Studies Program, and the W.E.B. DuBois Institute at Harvard University.

Sources

Sean O'Casey, "A Child Is Born" from I knock at the door: Swift glances back at things that made me. London: Macmillan Ltd. 1939.

United Nations Year of the Child Secretariat, 1978.

Carl Sandberg, "The People, Yes."

Mandy Mae Richards, "Mandy Mae" from Voices of Survivors. Ncasa News, Spring 1988.

Muriel Rukeyser, "Looking at Each Other" from The Collected Poems of Muriel Rukeyser. New York: McGraw Hill Book Company, 1978.

Aunt Mary Haynes, "Jes' Raised an Old Hill-Billy" from Working, by Studs Terkel.

Carolyn Rodgers, "Jesus was Crucified, Or it must be deep" and "It Is Deep" from how i got ovah. Garden City: Anchor Press/Doubleday, 1975.

Sean O'Casey, "A Child is Born" (Part two). ibid.

Okot P'Bitek, Song of Lawino, Nairobi: East African Publishing House, 1966.

Sojourner Truth, "I Talk to God" from Daughters of Africa, ed. Margaret Busby. New York: Pantheon Books, 1992.

Nobuko Miyamoto, "When I was Young" from Asian Women Journal. University of California, Berkeley, 1971.

Ann Cornelisen, "Nothing Is Private" from Women of the Shadows: A Study of Peasant Women of Southern Italy. Boston: Little Brown, 1976.

Lee Howard, "The Rape of Dona" from Women Surviving Massacres and Men, ed. E. Ethelbert Miller. Washington, DC: Anemone Press.

Susan Griffin, "Liberation" from No More Masks.

Charlotte Watson Sherman, "Glory."

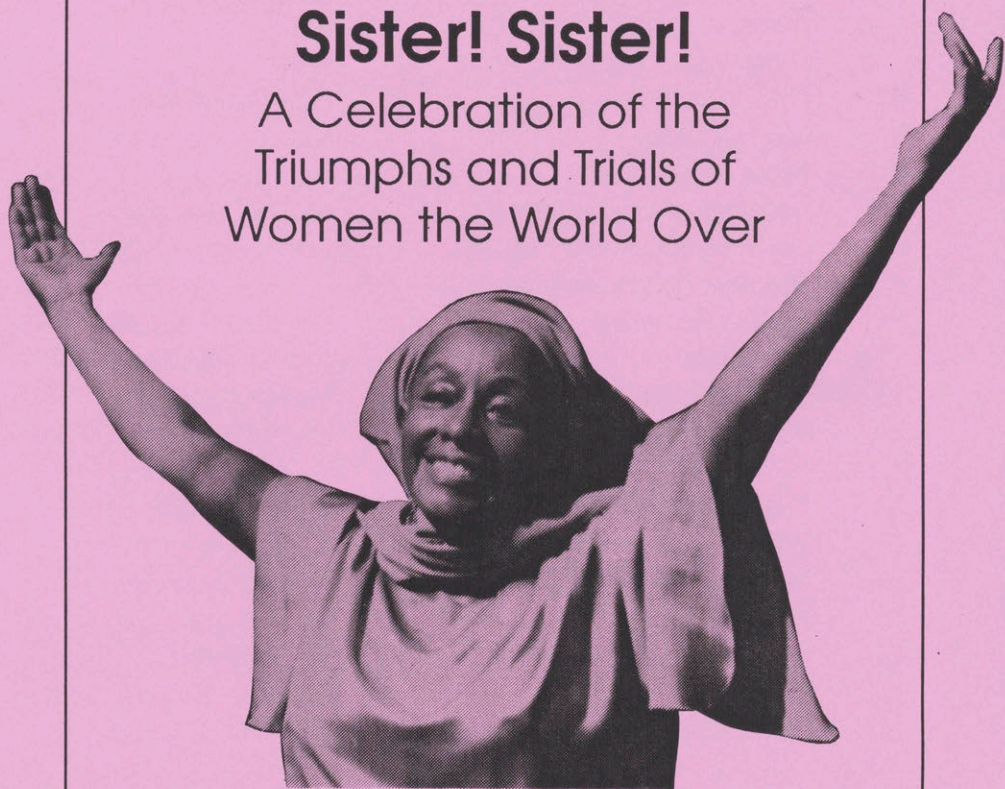

Winnie Mandela, "Detention" from Proceedings of United Nations Center Against Apartheid.

Black Women in the Academy:
Defending Our Name, 1894-1994
presents...

Vinie Burrows in her one woman show

Sister! Sister!

A Celebration of the
Triumphs and Trials of
Women the World Over

Arranged and Adapted
by Vinie Burrows

Kresge Auditorium, MIT, Cambridge

Vinie Burrows Sister! Sister!

Program

	Creation of the World	Eva Toth
1.	Invocation	Vinie Burrows
2.	A Child is Born (part one)	Sean O'Casey
3. a.	The Mother Only Wanted Three	Egypt
b.	Being on Social Security	U.K.
c.	They Said It Wouldn't Hurt	Mali
4.	The People, Yes	Carl Sandberg
5.	Mandy Mae	Mandy Richards
6.	Bride Mime
7.	Looking at Each Other	Muriel Rukeyser
8.	Jes' Raised an Ole Hillbilly	Aunt Mary Haynes
9. a.	Jesus was Crucified or It Must Be Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
b.	It is Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
10.	A Child is Born (part two)	Sean O'Casey
11.	Song of Lawino	Okot P'Bitek
	(pause)
12.	I Talk to God	Sojourner Truth
13.	When I was Young	Nobuko Miyamoto
14.	Nothing is Private	Abruzzi woman
15.	Rape of Dona	Lee Howard
16.	Liberation	Susan Griffin
17.	Glory	Charlotte Watson Sherman
18.	Detention	Winnie Mandela

Special thanks to Dr. Alan Brody, MIT Theatre Director whose past assistance, encouragement, and faith helped make this production possible. Thanks also to Woody King, available day and night with advice. And special thanks to my friend, Patricia Zipprodt, who believes in me when I doubt myself.

VINIE BURROWS began her career as a child actress, appearing on Broadway with Helen Hayes in "The Wisteria Trees." Her many theatre appearances include the famed State Department world-wide tour of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth" starring Mary Martin and George Abbott. Her many other Broadway and off-Broadway appearances include the original production of Jean Genet's "The Blacks," "The Ponder Heart," "Jezebel's Husband" and "The Green Pastures."

A few years back, Ms. Burrows, disillusioned by the dearth of quality roles for black women, branched out to create and direct her own solo productions. She now has a repertoire of seven completely different one woman shows which have been sponsored on more than 4,000 college campuses, in addition to tours of Holland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Romania, Germany, the United Kingdom, Algeria and Nigeria.

VINIE BURROWS has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors including Actors Equity's prestigious Paul Robeson Award and N.O.W.'s 1992 Susan B. Anthony Award. Ms. Burrows is also a permanent representative to the United Nations for the Women's International Democratic Federation.

---

Director	Alan Brody
Lighting	Herrick Goldman

Thanks to Maureen Costello, Barbara Schulman, MIT Conference Services, the History Department, the Science, Technology and Society Program, Department of Music and Theatre Arts, Campus Activities Complex, Norma Kilson, Rebecca Widom, and our ushers.

Thanks also to our sponsors: the Ford Foundation, the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, the Ms. Foundation, the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the Microsoft Corporation, the MIT Women's Studies Program, and the W.E.B. DuBois Institute at Harvard University.

Sources

Sean O'Casey, "A Child Is Born" from I knock at the door: Swift glances back at things that made me. London: Macmillan Ltd. 1939.

United Nations Year of the Child Secretariat, 1978.

Carl Sandberg, "The People, Yes."

Mandy Mae Richards, "Mandy Mae" from Voices of Survivors. Ncasa News, Spring 1988.

Muriel Rukeyser, "Looking at Each Other" from The Collected Poems of Muriel Rukeyser. New York: McGraw Hill Book Company, 1978.

Aunt Mary Haynes, "Jes' Raised an Old Hill-Billy" from Working, by Studs Terkel.

Carolyn Rodgers, "Jesus was Crucified, Or it must be deep" and "It Is Deep" from how i got ovah. Garden City: Anchor Press/Doubleday, 1975.

Sean O'Casey, "A Child is Born" (Part two). ibid.

Okot P'Bitek, Song of Lawino, Nairobi: East African Publishing House, 1966.

Sojourner Truth, "I Talk to God" from Daughters of Africa, ed. Margaret Busby. New York: Pantheon Books, 1992.

Nobuko Miyamoto, "When I was Young" from Asian Women Journal. University of California, Berkeley, 1971.

Ann Cornelisen, "Nothing Is Private" from Women of the Shadows: A Study of Peasant Women of Southern Italy. Boston: Little Brown, 1976.

Lee Howard, "The Rape of Dona" from Women Surviving Massacres and Men, ed. E. Ethelbert Miller. Washington, DC: Anemone Press.

Susan Griffin, "Liberation" from No More Masks.

Charlotte Watson Sherman, "Glory."

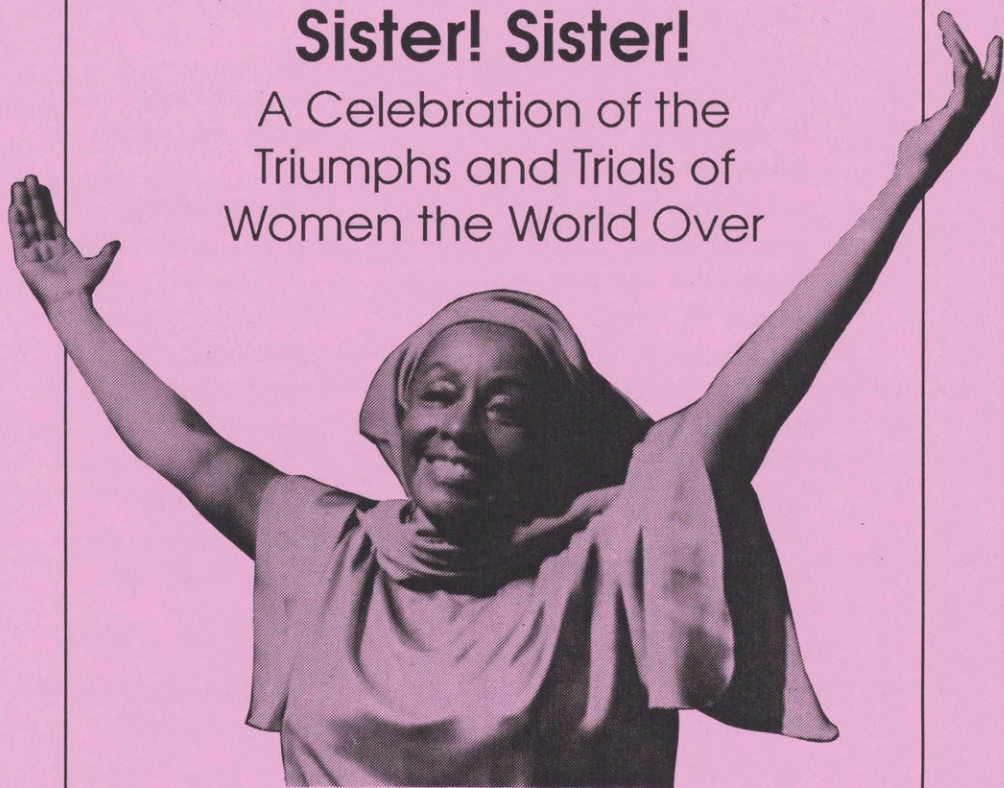

Winnie Mandela, "Detention" from Proceedings of United Nations Center Against Apartheid.

Black Women in the Academy:
Defending Our Name, 1894-1994
presents...

Vinie Burrows in her one woman show

Sister! Sister!

A Celebration of the
Triumphs and Trials of
Women the World Over

Arranged and Adapted
by Vinie Burrows

Kresge Auditorium, MIT, Cambridge

Vinie Burrows Sister! Sister!

Program

	Creation of the World	Eva Toth
1.	Invocation	Vinie Burrows
2.	A Child is Born (part one)	Sean O'Casey
3. a.	The Mother Only Wanted Three	Egypt
b.	Being on Social Security	U.K.
c.	They Said It Wouldn't Hurt	Mali
4.	The People, Yes	Carl Sandberg
5.	Mandy Mae	Mandy Richards
6.	Bride Mime
7.	Looking at Each Other	Muriel Rukeyser
8.	Jes' Raised an Ole Hillbilly	Aunt Mary Haynes
9. a.	Jesus was Crucified or It Must Be Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
b.	It is Deep	Carolyn Rodgers
10.	A Child is Born (part two)	Sean O'Casey
11.	Song of Lawino	Okot P'Bitek
	(pause)
12.	I Talk to God	Sojourner Truth
13.	When I was Young	Nobuko Miyamoto
14.	Nothing is Private	Abruzzi woman
15.	Rape of Dona	Lee Howard
16.	Liberation	Susan Griffin
17.	Glory	Charlotte Watson Sherman
18.	Detention	Winnie Mandela

Special thanks to Dr. Alan Brody, MIT Theatre Director whose past assistance, encouragement, and faith helped make this production possible. Thanks also to Woody King, available day and night with advice. And special thanks to my friend, Patricia Zipprodt, who believes in me when I doubt myself.

VINIE BURROWS began her career as a child actress, appearing on Broadway with Helen Hayes in "The Wisteria Trees." Her many theatre appearances include the famed State Department world-wide tour of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth" starring Mary Martin and George Abbott. Her many other Broadway and off-Broadway appearances include the original production of Jean Genet's "The Blacks," "The Ponder Heart," "Jezebel's Husband" and "The Green Pastures."

A few years back, Ms. Burrows, disillusioned by the dearth of quality roles for black women, branched out to create and direct her own solo productions. She now has a repertoire of seven completely different one woman shows which have been sponsored on more than 4,000 college campuses, in addition to tours of Holland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Romania, Germany, the United Kingdom, Algeria and Nigeria.

VINIE BURROWS has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors including Actors Equity's prestigious Paul Robeson Award and N.O.W.'s 1992 Susan B. Anthony Award. Ms. Burrows is also a permanent representative to the United Nations for the Women's International Democratic Federation.

---

Director	Alan Brody
Lighting	Herrick Goldman

Thanks to Maureen Costello, Barbara Schulman, MIT Conference Services, the History Department, the Science, Technology and Society Program, Department of Music and Theatre Arts, Campus Activities Complex, Norma Kilson, Rebecca Widom, and our ushers.

Thanks also to our sponsors: the Ford Foundation, the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, the Ms. Foundation, the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the Microsoft Corporation, the MIT Women's Studies Program, and the W.E.B. DuBois Institute at Harvard University.

Sources

Sean O'Casey, "A Child Is Born" from I knock at the door: Swift glances back at things that made me. London: Macmillan Ltd. 1939.

United Nations Year of the Child Secretariat, 1978.

Carl Sandberg, "The People, Yes."

Mandy Mae Richards, "Mandy Mae" from Voices of Survivors. Ncasa News, Spring 1988.

Muriel Rukeyser, "Looking at Each Other" from The Collected Poems of Muriel Rukeyser. New York: McGraw Hill Book Company, 1978.

Aunt Mary Haynes, "Jes' Raised an Old Hill-Billy" from Working, by Studs Terkel.

Carolyn Rodgers, "Jesus was Crucified, Or it must be deep" and "It Is Deep" from how i got ovah. Garden City: Anchor Press/Doubleday, 1975.

Sean O'Casey, "A Child is Born" (Part two). ibid.

Okot P'Bitek, Song of Lawino, Nairobi: East African Publishing House, 1966.

Sojourner Truth, "I Talk to God" from Daughters of Africa, ed. Margaret Busby. New York: Pantheon Books, 1992.

Nobuko Miyamoto, "When I was Young" from Asian Women Journal. University of California, Berkeley, 1971.

Ann Cornelisen, "Nothing Is Private" from Women of the Shadows: A Study of Peasant Women of Southern Italy. Boston: Little Brown, 1976.

Lee Howard, "The Rape of Dona" from Women Surviving Massacres and Men, ed. E. Ethelbert Miller. Washington, DC: Anemone Press.

Susan Griffin, "Liberation" from No More Masks.

Charlotte Watson Sherman, "Glory."

Winnie Mandela, "Detention" from Proceedings of United Nations Center Against Apartheid.