ACTION

1. Budget

Everett reported on the status of Lincoln funding and its budget implications.

The subject lead also to the discussion of SAGE schedule Number 7 which is being prepared by WE and JPO.

Division VI staff terminations and additions for the pass two calendar years were reviewed.

Zraket proposed the transfer of computer operators to Group 60.

Falcione indicated willingness.

2. Theses

Falcione outlined Division VI practice in connection with theses and Technical Reports

Everett approved present practices.

3. IBM

Morris inquired concerning responsibility for (a) equipment retrofit after the operational date, (b) systems maintenance, and (c) changes requested by AF. The JPO has requested IBM to look into these items. Lynch of IBM has discussed items (a) and (b) with Everett and Jacobs.

4. Miscellaneous

Israel led discussion of the improved weapons direction study and its relation to the January 1958 program package.

Corderman will participate with CRC in a study group of a new air-weather service.
