Window in grisaille containing figures of Mary and Martha of Bethany
 Tone of window to be restful
 * floor of gallery and about 25' from floor of church. Seen mostly from floor of church

Aug. 12 - one important point is that the tone of the window should be restful. Mmmbm four window during morning sunner when light is at its brightest. Be sure to read letters enclosed with this.

The space between glass and wood tracing runs from 1-3/8" to 1 7/8"
 For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side, over

Mary & Martha of Bethany and the three seraphim in the upper tracery pieces symbolize faith, hope and charity.

St. Mary stands in worshipful attitude, and wears a blue mantle for faithfulness, touched with red for passionate devotion, while Martha, holding in her hands a basket of fruit wears a golden tunic and a green and blue mantle for service and achievement

In accordance with Mr. Hughes letter, leave out the names St. Mary and St. Martha"
