

✓ CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND
LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Marquette State Mich No. ~~797~~ 797

Church St. Paul's Cathedral Date of Completion .....

Donor and Address .....

Architect ..... Quality of Glass .....

Denomination and Minister B Y Burt - Dean .....

Footage 108 sq ft .....

sight Sizes, full See letter Nov. 21

Ventilators None .....

Set by .....

Position in Church Chapel .....

Height from floor 12 or 15 feet .....

Protection Glass .....

Groove Rabbet 1/2" Stone Wood

Points of compass These windows are in the north end of the Church and the light is more striking

Quality of light Upper part of the windows better lighted than the lower Inscription as the chapel roof casts some shadow about four feet up on each lancet.

For inscription see other side

Design wanted .....

Staging .....

Shipping address .....

Blue-prints Received .....

Bill to .....

Templets .....

Photos of Cartoons Mailed .....

General Information Our Lord in Centre: white figure of Blessed Virgin on left and St. Peter (Name changed to St. John) on the right)

Make the windows not so nearly white as designs.

Make more red and glowing color

.....

Head of Christ disproportionately small in design.

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

Left panel (St. Mary)
"In Memoriam
Morgan Lewis White"

Centre Panel (Our Lord)
"In Memoriam
Kirtland Peter White
Born Oct. 21st, 1871
Fell Asleep In Christ
Sept. 12th, 1872"

Right panel (St. John)
"In Memoriam
Sadie White
and
Mark Howard White"