

FX

Mrs E. C. Curtis of North Celestino wishes to be notified when this window can be seen.

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Pasadena State California No. 964

Church Universalist Church Date of Completion

Donor and Address

Architect Frederick Kennedy Jr. Quality of Glass

Denomination and Minister

Footage 30 1/2 Sizes, full sight

Ventilators

Position in Church North Set by

Height from floor

Points of compass North Protection Glass

Quality of light These windows get very little light as there is a vine-covered pergola over that side of the church and should be kept very light, which is the reason of the chance

Inscription No memorial inscription round

"And it grew and brought forth fruit a hundredfold" (American Standard Version)

From Luke 8-8 Design wanted

Shipping address See # 933 Staging

Bill to

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information North aisle window - first from West

"The Sower and ~~the~~ Sheep" "The Reaper"

Common Memorial Window - grassy background and it brought forth, some thirty, some sixty and some

In last sheep medallion replace lamb by sheep

own shoulder

Should the grain in "The Sower" be sowed from a bag rather than a bowl. They leave this to our discretion

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

OK