

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Huntington, Long Island, State New York. No. 1455

Church Catholic Seminary for Brooklyn Diocese. Date of Completion May 1, 1930.

Donor and Address Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn, N.Y. 367 Clermont Av. Borough of Brooklyn.

Architect Robert J. Reiley, 12 East 41st St. N.Y.

Quality of Glass $15,600.00 for all the windows.
(about 23.00 per foot).

Denomination Catholic.
and Minister

Footage 5-0-9 each ~~square~~. sight Sizes, full

Ventilators Set by

Position in Church Four rose windows in Nave of Main Chapel. (2 each side).

Height from floor 23 feet. Protec- Groove Stone
tion Glass Rabbet Wood

Points of compass
Quality of light

Inscription

Design wanted Staging

Shipping address Blue-prints Received

Bill to Templets

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information Windows quite high. Chapel has seats running like choir stalls. That is the boys will face windows as they sit in seats. Stalls run parallel with walls.

Windows receiving brilliant light should be kept low in tones while the windows in the sacristy should have enough brilliant true whites so that the great altar may be seen to best advantage.