

FK

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Evanston, State Ill. No. 1163

Church First Congregational Church, Hinman Ave. & Lake Street, Evanston, Illinois. Date of Completion Nov. 1. 1927.

Donor and Address Mr. Thomas E. Tallmadge, Tallmadge & Watson

Architect 160 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago. Quality of Glass $650.00

Denomination and Minister Congregational

Footage 47-7-9 sq. ft. Sight Sizes, full Both.

Ventilators None Set by

Position in Church Stair Window in the Annex.

Height from floor 30" from stair floor Protection Glass No Rabbet 1/2" ~~Stone~~ Wood Wood Wood

Points of compass East.
Quality of light East.

Inscription (in bottom of middle section) "In Memory of Frances Munn 1895 - 1903"

Design wanted Staging

Shipping address Blue-prints Received

Bill to Templets Yes. R.J. Vogel.

Photos of Cartoons Mailed

General Information (See other side.)

Wooden sash and muntins.

No loose mould. Glass set in putty bevel.

Sunday School Building.

Triple windows

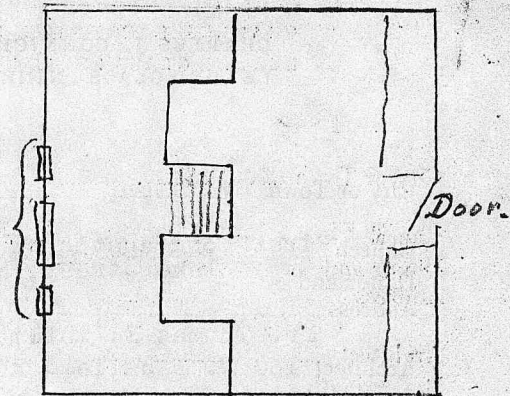

Center represents Sunday School
Sides represent Home and Church.

Muntins wood, can be removed.

Stair window, annex (1 group of 3)
47-7-9 sq.ft.

Wood sash and muntins.

Annex
Stair
Window
East.

Lady Chapel windows.

Iron divisions and must remain.

Large Chapel windows (2)
Each 57-6-0.

Small Chapel windows (6 clerestory)
each 10-0-0 sq.ft.

Steel sash and muntins.