Oct. 30, 1929. Dr. Osgood wrote - "In the medallion shown in the sketch of Christ and the little Children, the figure in the lower right hand arc seems to some of us not entirely graceful. It seems a rather unpleasant line. I wonder if, in your making up of the medallion, this figure could not be relocated or in some way put into a more graceful attitude? As I hold the medallion off from me, that particular figure in its lighter coloring, sends out not pleasantly."
*Mr. Snyder wishes to have the window in place a little before Easter. See his letter of Jan. 31 from Mr. Snyder).

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

IMPORTANT; the border and backgrounds around the medallions should be made a little lighter than the sketch shows.
