General Information Ornament. No figures. Warm center, gradually getting cooler toward the outside.

C.J.C.'s letter to Mr. Mills, Mar. 14, 1931. "I must tell you that it was never our intention to make the abrupt contrast of color that the small sketch suggests. We shall certainly modify and mellow that effect, but I do feel that a suggestion of warmth at the center is directly related to the design of its stone tracery. But I shall promise you no melodramatics."
