

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

18

City or Town Baltimore, State Md. No. 1058
 Church Franklin Street Presbyterian Church. Date of Completion April 25, 1926
 Donor and Address Mrs. B. L. Gildersleeve.

Architect..... Quality of Glass.....
 Denomination Rev. Harris E. Kirk, 504 Cathedral Street, and Minister Baltimore, Maryland.

Footage 47 feet. Sizes, full sight.....
 Ventilators and also lower sections. No ventilators. Pivoted sash in upper sections will be removed Set by.....

Position in Church Window in West Elevation, Third from the North.

Height from floor about 5' Protec- Groove Stone
 tion Glass..... Rabbet..... Wood.....
 Points of compass Light from the west is poor since a building is close by Quality of light and only the western sun in the afternoon strikes the window in an oblique direction.

Inscription "In loving memory of Basil Gildersleeve."

Design wanted..... "In the light shall we see light"
Correct inscription for the Gildersleeve Window. Staging.....
 Shipping address..... Blue-prints.....
 Received.....

1831 Basil Lanneau Gildersleeve 1924 In Thy light shall we see light.

Bill (under 1st lancet.)..... (under 2nd lancet.)
 Photos of Cartoons Mailed.....

General Information Dr. Mrs will have the ventilator frames taken out.
 Please note: phrase "in loving memory of" to be taken out.

Lanneau for L. and Thy for the in phrase In thy light etc.

Subjects: The Crucifixion..... The Resurrection
The altar of the Unknown God...... God and the Human Family
Paul in the Market Place...... The Stoics and Epicurians
The Acropolis...... in the Ariopagus
Paul in the Jewish Synagogue

For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.