

CHARLES J. CONNICK : DESIGNER AND WORKER IN STAINED AND LEADED GLASS : NINE HARCOURT STREET, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

City or Town Cincinnati, State Ohio. No. 1337 Church Ursuline Sisters School Chapel. Date of Completion March 1, 1932.
Donor and Address Sister M. Mechtilde.
Ursuline Sisters of Brown County, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Architect Crowe and Schulte, Cincinnati, Ohio. Quality of Glass $500.00 ($20. per ft.)
Denomination Catholic. and Minister
Footage 25-0-0. sight Sizes, full Ventilators Set by Position in Church Aisle Window over Confessional.
Height from floor 8'6". Protec- tion Glass Groove Rabbet Stone Cut Wood Stone.
Points of compass South. (Sr. Mechtilde wrote July 9, 1931 - "We are pleased to Quality of light note that the general effect is somewhat lighter than the other windows, as the part of the chapel where this window is Inscription situated needs more light."
.....
Design wanted Sent Dec. 22, 1926. At once. Staging Shipping address Blue-prints Received
.....
Bill to Templets
Photos of Cartoons Mailed
General Information Aisle Window over Confessional.
~~They must show...~~ "Saint Tarsicius... Mother Superior sends the pictures and a short sketch, which together give the substance of the legend. As the window is probably too small for a figure such as Mr. Connick represented in the other window, Mother Superior suggests that two vignettes might represent the priest giving the Blessed Sacrament to Tarsicius, and his Martyrdom." (See photographs (3) and a short description which was sent by Sister Mechtilde.)
.....
This description written when sketch was sent: - "The subjects of the medallions are the two significant incidents from the Life of Saint Tarsicius as suggested - the Priest giving the Blessed Sacrament to Saint Tarsicius, and his Martyrdom. The general treatment of the field and For addresses of those to be notified as window progresses, see other side.

Tracery is similar to that of the other windows (those which we have placed).
In the Quatrefoil above is represented the symbol of the pelican feeding its young." (July 2, 1931).

"I shall make some variations in the grisaille design." C.J.C. to Schulte, Nov. 12, 1931.